

Attending: Chair, Hannah Regenscheid; Commissioners, Jeff Davis, Mary Lundell and Cheryle Peters; Dave Lorentz. Some discussion ensued regarding the Veteran’s Day Holiday.

Stating that the law is “imprecise” on the subject of township business on the holiday, General Counsel, from MAT fielded the question on the First Tuesday Conference meeting. It was noted that the township would be allowed to deem what is “necessary” to justify doing business on the holiday.

The township historically did not move the meeting when it had occurred on 11-11-08 or 11-11-14. The Planning Commission meets only once a month to accommodate applicants; at the October Town Board meeting, Mr. Lorentz had been referred back to the Planning Commission for processing reasons.

Pledge of Allegiance: Chair, Hannah Regenscheid, called the meeting to order; the pledge of allegiance was recited.

Agenda: The agenda was reviewed.

Approval of Minutes from October 14th, 2025: Mary Lundell made a motion to approve the October minutes; Jeff Davis seconded the motion. The motion passed 4/0.

Public to Speak: Dave Lorentz, 4900 Scout Ridge Road, attended with a survey depicting a newly proposed land split with Goodhue County. The survey was reviewed.
